Indiana Department of Revenue

Office of the Commissioner

November 1, 2002

The Honorable Frank O'Bannon
Governor, State of Indiana
State House, Room 206
Indianapolis, IN 46204

Dear Governor O'Bannon,

The Indiana Department of Revenue is pleased to submit the 2002 Charity Gaming Annual Report for your review. I believe you will find it to be both informative and an accurate accounting of the recent fiscal year's charity gaming activity.

No state statute requires the issuance of this report; however, the Department believes it is extremely important for the public to understand the size and scope of charity gaming within our state and the revenues that it generates.

The included financial information pertaining to not-for-profit organizations, which are the only legal entities allowed to conduct gaming of this variety, is available for public inspection according to IC 6-2.1-8-4.

Sincerely,

Kenneth L. Miller
Commissioner
Indiana Department of Revenue

History of Indiana Charity Gaming

In June 1992, the Indiana Department of Revenue was given the responsibility of enforcing charity gaming laws in Indiana. Only qualified not-for-profit organizations can legally conduct charity gaming events in Indiana. These gaming events are limited to bingo, charity game nights, door prizes, festival events, raffles, and the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards. Organizations must be licensed and registered for each type of charity gaming event they want to conduct.

Which Organizations Qualify?

An organization may conduct legal charity gaming events if it is a bona fide educational, religious, senior citizen, veteran, or civic/fraternal/charitable organization operating in Indiana, and is exempt from taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

The not-for-profit organizations eligible to engage in Indiana charity gaming events are defined in Title 4, Article 32, of the Indiana Code. A brief description of these organizations is as follows:

Bona Fide Civic Organization

A branch, chapter, or lodge of a local, national, or state organization that is not-for-profit and primarily operated for charitable, civic, or fraternal purposes.

Bona Fide Educational Organization

An organization that is not-for-profit, whose primary purpose is educational in nature, and is designed to develop the capabilities of individuals by instruction in public or private elementary and secondary schools, as well as colleges and universities.

Bona Fide Political Organization

An association, committee, fund, party, or other organization that is established and operated for either directly or indirectly accepting contributions and making expenditures for an exempt purpose, as defined in Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code. These organizations are the Democratic Party, Republican Party, Independent Party, etc.

Note: A political candidate's committee is not a political organization by this definition.

Bona Fide Religious Organization

An organization, church, or body of communicants operating on a not-for-profit basis and primarily for religious purposes. The organization must operate under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code and provide written documentation as such.

Bona Fide Senior Citizens Organization

An organization that is not-for-profit and has at least 15 members who are at least 60 years old. The purpose of the organization is to advance and support the causes of the elderly and retired persons.

Bona Fide Veterans Organization

A local organization, or a branch, chapter, or lodge of a national or state organization that is not-for-profit, chartered by the United States Congress, and whose members are or were in the United States Armed Forces. The purpose of the organization is for the mutual advancement and support of the organization's membership and patriotic causes.

All organizations meeting one of the preceding requirements also must have been in active and continuous existence for at least 5 years, or be affiliated with a parent organization that has been in existence and operating for at least 5 years. Except where a qualified organization or its affiliate is having a convention or other annual meeting of its membership, charity gaming events may only be conducted in the county where the Indiana principal office is located.

Any hospital licensed under IC 16-21, a health facility licensed under IC 16-28, or a psychiatric facility licensed under IC 12-25, may conduct charity gaming events under certain circumstances.

Being exempt from taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code does not ensure that an organization is eligible to conduct legal charity gaming events. The types of organizations that do not qualify include federal credit unions, pension trusts, and generally those established primarily for literary, scientific, and social purposes.

What Are Legal Charity Gaming Activities?

Qualified not-for-profit organizations may conduct certain types of legal charity gaming activities in Indiana. These activities include bingo, door prizes, raffles, as well as the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards. Charity game nights and festival events are also covered. Individuals participating in licensed events must be at least 18 years old.

Bingo

A bingo game is played with regulation bingo cards, pads, or sheets. A player covers the numbers that are called out by the announcer. The winner of each game is the player who is the first to properly cover the announced pattern of squares on the bingo surface.

Door Prizes

A door prize is awarded to a person based solely upon the person's attendance at an event, or the purchase of a ticket to attend an event.

Raffles

A raffle is the selling of chances or tickets to win a prize awarded through a random drawing.

Pull Tabs

A pull tab is either a single, folded, banded ticket, or a two-ply card with a perforated break-open tab that has a hidden symbol that determines the winner. The prize must be fully described on the inside of the ticket.

Punchboards

A punchboard is a board or card that contains a grid or sections that hide the random opportunity to win a prize based on the results of punching a single section to reveal either a prize amount or a symbol.

Tip Boards

A tip board is a game of chance board or placard with a hidden winning number or symbol in each column.

Charity Game Nights

This permits the licensee to conduct a card game, a dice game, a roulette wheel and a spindle (wheel of fortune style) game, along with door prize drawings and the sale of pull-tabs, punchboards and tip boards. An organization is limited to holding four charity game nights per calendar year.

Festival Events

This permits the licensee to conduct bingo games, charity game night, one raffle, door prizes and the sale of pull-tabs, punchboards and tip boards at the festival. A festival can only be held once a calendar year and cannot exceed four consecutive days.

Listed are the six different types of licenses that are available:

1. Annual Bingo License
2. Charity Game Night License
3. Door Prize License
4. Festival License

Administrative Highlights for Fiscal Year 2002

The Charity Gaming Section of the Indiana Department of Revenue was created to administer charity gaming laws. Staff members in this section, in addition to field investigators from the Criminal Investigation Division, strive to see that licensed organizations are operating within charity gaming laws and regulations.

Build Indiana Fund

Under IC 4-32-10-6, the Indiana Department of Revenue is required to remit charity gaming surplus revenue into the “Build Indiana Fund.” This revenue is generated by license fees, as well as excise taxes and penalties. The department deposited $4,000,000 into this fund during Fiscal Year 2002.

Taxpayer Assistance

During Fiscal Year 2002, the Charity Gaming Section assisted 212 taxpayers in the walk-in assistance center and answered 15,769 phone calls (compared to 18,492 in Fiscal Year 2001).

Education

During Fiscal Year 2002, six educational seminars were conducted around the state (see “Seminars,” page 10) and three are planned for FY03.

Form Revision

During Fiscal Year 2002, the following forms were revised to facilitate reporting requirements:

- CG-NSR, Indiana Department of Revenue Charity Gaming Nightly Summary Report
- CG-1, Annual Qualification Application
- CG-2, Annual Bingo License Application

Legislation

There was no new legislation that became effective during Fiscal Year 2002.

Seminars

Education is one of the major missions within the Indiana Department of Revenue and the Charity Gaming Section spends a great number of man-hours to that end. During Fiscal Year 2002, six educational seminars were conducted around the state, not as mere “meet and greet” sessions but with an emphasis on education. Important topics such as not-for-profit tax regulations, how to qualify, charity gaming excise tax, and bookkeeping were discussed by the Section’s staff. A member of the department’s legal team spoke on penalties and fines.

The six full-day seminars were well received and attended by the not-for-profit groups. They have proven to be a valuable tool in helping groups understand and comply to the Indiana codes and regulations.

For Fiscal Year 2003, three full-day seminars have been scheduled for late summer and fall in Indianapolis, Plymouth and Madison.

License Fees

The fee for the first license in any category is $25.

For a subsequent license, fees are based on the gross receipts from the previous event for which the same type of license was held.

These receipts include:

1. The income from all gaming activities, including the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards.
2. The sale of tangible personal property specifically sold at the gaming event. Some items commonly sold at these events include card doblers, good luck dolls, keychains, etc.
3. Concessions that are sold specifically at the gaming event.

Contracting with an individual or group to operate a gaming event on behalf of a qualified organization is a Class D Felony. (IC 4-32-12)

Charity gaming license fees are based on the following chart:

Statistics

Every organization that holds a charity gaming license is required to file a financial report for each of its licenses. The following statistics are based on financial reports that were received during the State of Indiana's Fiscal Year 2002 (July 1, 2001 - June 30, 2002). An organization cannot receive a successive gaming license until it has filed a financial report for its previous event.

The information was obtained from all Forms CG-8, Annual Bingo Financial Reports, and Forms CG-9, Single Event Financial Reports, received during Fiscal Year 2002. The number of licenses issued during the fiscal year may differ from the number of financial reports actually received during the fiscal year. (Annual bingo licenses are valid for one year from the date of issuance.)

Information pertaining to not-for-profit organizations is available for public inspection according to IC 6-2.1-8-4. This includes all applications for exemption and all annual reports filed by the not-for-profit organizations under IC 6-2.1-3-19, IC 6-2.1-3-20, IC 6-2.1-3-21, and IC 6-2.1-3-22, which also includes information on the above mentioned forms.

- *More than one type of charity gaming license may be held at a time; and,

- *An unlimited number of door prize, raffle, and special bingo licenses may be issued to organizations during the same year, as long as all required applications and fees have been received and approved by the Indiana Department of Revenue; and,

All figures in this section came directly from the financial reports filed with the Indiana Department of Revenue by the licensed organizations.
